THE WHOLE-BRAIN CHILD: At home and in the classroom
KEYNOTE SPEAKER
Tina Payne Bryson, Ph.D.
THE WHOLE-BRAIN CHILD
We are pleased to host the 25th Winston Annual Learning Symposium on Friday, January 30, 2015. The primary goal of the Learning Symposium is to invite Winston School students to high potential and identified learning differences. A Winston School graduate is confident, well-rounded, and a lifelong self-advocate.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of The Winston School San Antonio is to provide a personalized, college preparatory education to students with high potential and identified learning differences. A Winston School graduate is confident, well-rounded, and a lifelong self-advocate.

Symposium Wrap-Up

Technology as a Tool

Dr. Steven Young, M.A.

- Chief Technology Officer, Aurora

- Independent School District

With the explosion of web-based resources available for instructional use online, it’s easy to become overwhelmed. This presentation will cut through the web chatter and provide some concrete viable options for classroom use by students and teachers. The presenter will also provide teachers and students with five practical ideas, ideas for how they can be used, and tools to get more information on how to use each tool.

Vocational Outcomes

Steven Yocham, M.D.

- Head of Upper School, The Winston School

- San Antonio, Julie Holloway, M.Ed.

- College and Career Counselor, The Winston School San Antonio

This session will provide labor market data regarding needs for the present day and future workforce development. Vocational Outcomes will highlight the need for soft skill and technology training, provide information on available preparation programs, offer tools for evaluating the best program for a student, and summarize statistics regarding opportunities, salaries, and success.

Gearing Up for the Next Step
