

Methodist Pediatric Outreach presents:

RESPIRATORY DISTRESS IN THE NEWBORN

*presented by neonatologist
Dr. Christina Stine*

Where: Frio Regional Hospital
Conference Room
Pearsall, TX

When: Wednesday August 2nd
1230-1330

Who: For healthcare providers involved in the care of infants.

The learner will:

- Increase understanding of the underlying causes of respiratory distress in the newborn,
- Increase understanding of common newborn diagnosis,
- Increase awareness of the normal newborn congenital heart defect screening,
- Increase understanding of congenital anomalies that contribute to respiratory distress.

Registration:

- 1) Employees register with Maricela Benavides at mbenavides@myfrh.com;
- 2) Non-employees download registration form at www.methodistpedioutreach.com & send as directed; call with questions 210-575-7552

1.0 CNE
or CME credit!

PHYSICIAN ACCREDITATION STATEMENTS:

UNT Health Science Center is accredited by the American Osteopathic Association to award continuing medical education to physicians. This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education through the joint sponsorship of UNT Health Science Center Office of Professional and Continuing Education and Methodist Children's Hospital. UNT Health Science Center is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

PHYSICIAN CREDIT DESIGNATION:

UNT Health Science Center has requested that the AOA Council on Continuing Medical Education approve this program for 1 hours of AOA Category 2A CME credits. Approval is currently pending.

UNT Health Science Center designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 *AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)*TM.

Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.