

Methodist Pediatric Outreach Presents:

The S.T.A.B.L.E. Program

Methodist Children's Hospital

John E. Hornbeak bldg Dallas classroom

Monday, May 13th 9am- 5pm

8 CEU CREDITS!

Register Email lindsey.spears@mhshealth.com with name and preferred email.

Questions? Call 210-575-7550

Course is FREE! Lunch included!

Objectives include increasing understanding of:

- * Infants at risk of developing hypoglycemia and hypothermia,
- * Signs of hypoglycemia, treatment, and reassessment
- * The physiologic response to hypothermia, along with mechanisms of heat loss and gain,
- * Signs of respiratory distress and failure; and management of newborns in respiratory distress,
- * Respiratory illness and challenges that present in the neonatal period,
- * The physical examination to evaluate for shock, respiratory distress, and sepsis,
- * Causes and management of the 3 main types of shock seen in the newborn,
- * Clinical significance of ABG results, and appropriate interventions, and
- * Strategies for supporting the families of newborns requiring transport.

Amazing TogetherSM